

THE FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

Bethel Lutheran Church

November 7, 2021

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember those who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. While we may face death with fear, the liturgy calls us to hear the Lord's promise that He is with us in life and in death.

Christ has claimed us in baptism and at His table we gather with the faithful of every time and place trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled. In the new Jerusalem we shall join all the saints in praise of God, Who has turned our graves into the doorway to eternal life.

✝ GATHERING ✝

✠ WORD ✠

FIRST READING: Isaiah 25:6-9

Isaiah sees a vision of the end of days, when God will gather all people on God's holy mountain and will prepare for them a rich feast. At this banquet God will wipe the tears from all eyes. And there will be no more sorrow, for God will destroy death itself.

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

<sup>7</sup>And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
<sup>8</sup>he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup>It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

The Word of the Lord. C. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24

They shall receive a blessing from the God of their salvation.

The earth is the LORD's and all | that is in it,
the world and all who | dwell therein.

<sup>2</sup>For it is He Who founded it up- | on the seas
and made it firm upon the rivers | of the deep.

<sup>3</sup>"Who can ascend the hill | of the LORD
and who can stand in His | holy place?"

<sup>4</sup>"Those who have clean hands and | a pure heart,
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood, nor sworn by what | is a fraud.

<sup>5</sup>They shall receive a blessing | from the LORD
and a just reward from the God of | their salvation."

<sup>6</sup>Such is the generation of | those who seek Him,
of those who seek Your face, O | God of Jacob.

<sup>7</sup>Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O ever- | lasting doors;
and the King of glory | shall come in.

<sup>8</sup>”Who is this | King of glory?”

”The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, might- | y in battle.”

<sup>9</sup>Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O ever- | lasting doors;
and the King of glory | shall come in.

<sup>10</sup>”Who is He, this | King of glory?”

”The LORD of hosts, He is the | King of glory.”

SECOND READING: Revelation 21:1-6a

Here is a vision of the new heaven and new earth in which God resides fully with God’s people so that mourning, despair, and pain have been eradicated. These renewing words from the God who spans all of time are trustworthy and true.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

”See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them;

they will be His peoples,

and God Himself will be with them;

<sup>4</sup>He will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more;

mourning and crying and pain will be no more,

for the first things have passed away.”

<sup>5</sup>And the One Who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.”

Also He said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” <sup>6a</sup>Then He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”

The Word of the Lord. C. Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL: St. John 11:32-44

Through the raising of Lazarus, Jesus offers the world a vision of the life to come, when death and weeping will be no more.

C. Glory to You, O Lord.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw Him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.” <sup>33</sup>When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. <sup>34</sup>He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to Him, “Lord, come and see.” <sup>35</sup>Jesus began to weep. <sup>36</sup>So the Jews said, “See how He loved him!” <sup>37</sup>But some of them said, “Could not He who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

<sup>38</sup>Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. <sup>39</sup>Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to Him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” <sup>40</sup>Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” <sup>41</sup>So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank You for having heard Me. <sup>42</sup>I knew that You always hear Me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that You sent Me.” <sup>43</sup>When He had said this, He cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” <sup>44</sup>The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

P. The Gospel of the Lord.

C. Praise to You, O Christ.

SERMON

HYMN OF THE DAY      Sing with All the Saints in Glory (Tune is “Joyful, Joyful”)

- 1 Sing with all the saints in glory, sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth’s dark story, to the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking, soon the storms of time shall cease;
in God’s likeness we awaken, knowing everlasting peace.
- 2 Oh, what glory, far exceeding all that eye has yet perceived!
Holiest hearts for ages pleading never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it, there on high our welcome waits.
Ev’ry humble spirit shares it, Christ has passed the eternal gates.
- 3 Life eternal! heav’n rejoices: Jesus lives Who once was dead.
Shout with joy, O deathless voices! Child of God, lift up your head!
Life eternal! Oh, what wonders crowd on faith; what joy unknown, when, amid earth’s closing thunders, saints shall stand before the throne!

All Saints' Day is a universal festival of the Church. This festival day directs our attention to the richness of Christian history and the varied experiences of the grace of God by lifting up the lives of the saints.

The custom of commemorating all the martyrs of the Church on a single day goes back at least to the third century. All Saints' Day (Nov. 1) celebrates not only the martyrs and saints, but all the people of God, living and dead, who together form the mystical body of Christ.

Below are the names of the members and friends of Bethel Lutheran Church who have died since All Saints' Day last year. We remember them in our prayers today, and we give thanks for their lives. We remember and find strength in their faith and the faith of all the saints both known to us and known only to God.

What's with the "display" in the narthex ?

Through November 14th our spare change will be "gobbled up" to support the community take out Thanksgiving dinner prepared by the Presbyterian Church in Canby.

The display and the community projects supported by this effort will change frequently. If you have a community project that you would like Bethel to support, suggest the project to one of the Deacons.

Coming Soon:

The Thanksgiving Tree providing gifts for area children at Christmas time. Watch for the tree in the Narthex.

Tears Are Holy

"Jesus wept" (John 11:35). It's the shortest verse in the Bible (in many non-NRSV versions), popular among Sunday school children trying to pad their stats in Bible memorization games. Only two words, three short syllables: "Jesus wept." It is also a profound theological statement. Death hurts. Even for Jesus. Even with prophecies and promises to wipe away every tear.

Although we may put it out of mind at times, we have always been dust. We have always known that to dust we shall return. Before rushing to the reassurance of eternal life with God, we honor the sacred finitude of life by honestly naming and feeling the grief of death.

Even as He embodied resurrection power, Jesus felt the sting of death. When He heard that His friend Lazarus had died, He wept. He didn't immediately bring him back, and He didn't explain it away. He wept. This is Jesus at His most human and His most divine. Life is holy, and its loss is painful. Your tears, like Jesus' tears, are holy. You are not alone.

The vision of Revelation promises a time when God will wipe away every tear, when death and mourning and crying and pain will be no more. But as Jesus Himself experienced, we must first contend with the heartbreak of death. On All Saints Day we remember the saints who have gone before. We celebrate their lives and the promise of a future with God. And we honor them with our tears and mourning, and our honest and complicated feelings for them.

Stories promise endings, but too often death brings relationships to a stop without the closure of an ending. The promise of resurrection and the rituals of All Saints Day remind us that our stories continue to unfold in mysterious ways—even after death. God shows up in the messiness of loss and mourning, and God's love carries us through the loneliness and fear. Thanks be to God.

Upcoming Commemorations

John Christian Frederick Heyer, died 1873; Bartholomaeus Ziegenbalg, died 1719; Ludwig Nommensen, died 1918; missionaries Sunday, November 7, 2021

Heyer was the first missionary sent out by American Lutherans. After teaching at Gettysburg College and Seminary he was assigned to the Andhra region of India. Ziegenbalg, a worker among the Tamil people on the southeast coast of India, was opposed both by local Hindus and by Danish authorities who favored a different missionary style. He was known for caring about the welfare of the whole person. Nommensen was born in northern Germany and was sent to Sumatra as a Lutheran missionary. Working among the Batak people, he translated the scriptures into their language, and honored their native culture.

Martin, Bishop of Tours, died 397
Thursday, November 11, 2021

Martin's pagan father enlisted him in the Roman army. Approached by a beggar, Martin cut his cloak in half and gave part to the man, whom he later understood as representing Christ. He asked to leave the army, but was jailed instead. After his release, he became a preacher, and later a bishop.

Søren Aabye Kierkegaard, teacher, died 1855
Thursday, November 11, 2021

Kierkegaard was a Danish theologian whose writings also gave rise to the modern philosophy of existentialism. He frequently attacked the complacency of the state church of his day, as well as its desire to be accepted by polite society rather than be a stumbling block.
